

Kearvaig Log Book

30/07/07

My great-great grandfather John McCallum & his family lived here during the 1840's & 50's. They also lived at Dail, the house close to the Kyle at the Bridge. The families, 3 girls & 6 boys All reaching adulthood except for one. Three boys went to Australia. One of the men later moved to Shegra. There is some writing on the wall in the little room with reference to this. One of the boys became a fisherman after spending some time at Balnekeil (the other boy died) The girls married and lived in the area. Kitty married a McCloud, a shepherd & lived here. Barbara married a McKay & moved to the Scourie area, Hughie married a MacInnes & also moved Scourie/Oldshore more area. Member of all these families have spread all over the world - there are many.

This is my fourth visit & it still hits me in the same way. Magical!

Faye's also is a member & knows anything about families in this wonderful part of Scotland contact us:

The following is copied from the Kearvaig Log Book.

30/07/07

My great-great grandfather, John McCallum & his family lived here during the 1840's & 50's. They also lived at Dail, the house close to the Kyle at the Bridge. The families, 3 girls & 6 boys All reaching adulthood except for one. Three boys went to Australia. One of the men later moved to Shegra. There is some writing on the wall in the little room with reference to this. One of the boys became a fisherman after spending some time at Balnekeil (the other boy died) The girls married and lived in the area. Kitty married a McCloud, a shepherd & lived here. Barbara married a McKay & moved to the Scourie area, Hughie married a MacInnes & also moved Scourie/Oldshore more area. Member of all these families have spread all over the world - there are many. This is my fourth visit and it still hits me in the same way. Magical!